

This is regarding the change in FM radio. As a listener of current Fm stations like Air One. I would like to express my objection to making changes in the current FM system. Especially when those changes will cause me to lose air one and other quality programming that I now listen too.